HOSPITAL NOTES

Mrs. Julius Rosch is improving rapidly from the serious operation which she recently underwent.

Frank Neil Parrish who was operated on for appendicitis last Saturday, is doing fine.

Zeke Woods was brought in from the Todhunter ranch with a dislocated shoulder last Sunday.

Alfred Ales will be able to return to his home in Hillsboro today.

Canning fruit, jars of jelly or fruit will be of a great help to the hospital, as there are quite a few charity patients and all donations will be gratefully received.

Guilty of Passing Worthless Checks

R. C. Lyman, who told the officers he was from Deming, was arrested Monday afternoon by city detective Brown and placed in jail at El Paso on a charge of drawing worthless checks. Lyman, who has been there but a few days, cashed one check for $20, and another for twice that amount on a Deming bank, both instruments being endorsed by a friend in that city. On investigation it was found that he did not have money in Deming, and that a complaint was sworn out in justice's court, Lyman arrested at the Ziegler hotel, in whose favor the smaller check was drawn. The second check was cashed at the Texas Bank and Trust company.

SOUTHWESTERN CATTLE LOAN CO. IS FORMED

El Paso, Texas.—John T. McCabe of El Paso, was elected president of the Rio Grande Cattle and Loan Co., which was granted a charter a few days ago under Texas laws, at a meeting of the directors here Saturday. Mr. McCabe is the president of the First National bank at Lordsburg, and is well known in this city. The other officers of the company were chosen as follows: J. H. Latham, of Lake Valley, N. M., vice-president; E. L. Foulkes, of Deming, N. M., treasurer, and Charles Wharton, of El Paso, secretary.

At the same meeting it was voted to increase the capital stock to $500,000 from $100,000. The company has been organized to handle cattle paper belonging to the El Paso territory but which has been handled by Kansas City and other points in that section of the country.

"The majority of our directors are cattlemen of thirty or more years experience," said Mr. Latham Saturday. "We believe that we have the only organization in the country devoted to the business of cattlemen and conducted by experienced cattlemen. It is our purpose to loan money on longer time than can be secured by cattlemen in the east and to handle cattle paper in general."

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Taylor, Miss Lavina Hill and Mrs. O. H. Cooper left Wednesday morning for California where they will spend three weeks visiting the fairs. Miss Hill will leave the party after their visit in California, and make a very interesting trip through quite a few of the western states.

Mrs. J. O. Hatcher returned from a short trip from Hillsboro. Mrs. Hatcher's sister is now visiting her in Deming, from Emboden, Arkansas.

Miss Bessie Browning left for Central, N. M., where she will visit her mother for a short time.

WILLIAMSON GROCERY

All persons indebted to the Williamson Grocery, bankrupts, will kindly settle their accounts before September 1, thereby saving considerable inconvenience, as these accounts are to be sold if not collected before that date.

IOLA ITEMS

Miss Hazel Wykoff who taught in Iola and other Luna county schools for five years, left the community Tuesday for her old home in Pennsylvania. For the past two weeks, numerous friends in Waterloo, Hondale and Iola entertained her. Saturday her brother, Roscoe, came from Arizona to visit with his sister before her departure. All wish her a pleasant visit and hope that she will soon return.

Some of our people had a jolly time at Waterloo Saturday evening. Some were disappointed because they had to return, after driving some miles, finding their horses unable to cope with the boggy roads.

Mr. Valentine, who came to visit Mr. and Mrs. H. Lucas of Iola, is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. H. Kelly Lucas of Hondale. Mr. Valentine is so pleased with the country that he will remain some weeks longer before returning to Fort Worth, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gibson have rented a house in Deming in order to give their children the benefit of the Deming school and also instruction in music.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Colt and Mr. and Mrs. John Yeargin, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kelley Lucas and other friends were visitors at the Lucas farm and greatly enjoyed the delicious peaches grown on the farm.

Your correspondent is under obligations to John Yeargin for splendid cucumbers grown on his farm. Mr. Yeargin says that the vines are bearing prolifically.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kelly Lucas were jolly guests at the Danse place Saturday and Sunday.

MOUNTAIN VIEW

The Lane brothers are tending the crop of Robert Lane this season.

Mrs. Noyes and Miss Cora Quigley were callers at the Maisel ranch the first of the week.

Ralph Snidow has been on the sick list the past few days.

Splendid rains again visited this section the latter part of last week. The crops are growing fine.

Mrs. Lane, her niece Mrs. Akers, and Mrs. Akers' children, and Miss Ola Rambo, Miss Jennie Rambo were visitors at the Maisel ranch the last of the week.

Miss Marie Maisel celebrated her fifteenth birthday last Sunday. Relatives and friends were invited to partake of the goodies that were prepared for the occasion.

Miss Ola Rambo and her sister spent several days of last week at the Haptonstall home.

Mr. and Mrs. King Maisel came home from Silver City the first of the week.

Bill Albee and Jack Noyes came home from Deming Monday where they have been digging a well.

Mrs. Lane and Mrs. Noyes were in Deming the first of the week.

LUXOR

Mr. H. B. Queensberry, wife and daughter were visitors in the Henry home Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Queensberry's health is improving since she has been able to get out in the open more.

L. C. Angel has been kept pretty busy dry farming.

J. D. Henry is putting down a new irrigating well on his homestead. They have begun to use their new adobe milk house which is a building, 15x18 with partitions. One room has water passing through a galvanized troughs in which the cream is kept; another is for separating and otherwise caring for the milk.

H. B. Barto has his crops in, and is well prepared to care for them with a good supply of water.

Fine rains in this section have made the grass come. Mr. Quisenberry reports his cattle in the best of condition.

During the hard rain Saturday the culvert on the Borderland route was washed out near the S. C. Angels place. This same culvert was washed out last year. It needs to be replaced by a larger one.

The luxuriant growth of weeds on the vacant lots on both sides of the railroad yards may be evidence of great fertility of the soil hereabouts, but are not a pleasing sight to travelers passing through on the trains. The owners of these lots should work up civic pride and clean up the premises.

Twenty-six Years Ago in Deming

(Taken from the Deming Headlight of July 4, 1889.)

Robinson and Rose, the late battery of the Silver City base ball club, are now members of the Deming nine, and will also strengthen it so that Deming can boast of a winning club, while the sudden change will knock the entire foundation from under the Silver City club. The Deming nine will soon be re-organized upon a more substantial basis, with the assistance of these two gentlemen will undoubtedly come to the front.

Leo, the fine St. Bernard dog, imported by Gustave Wormser a year and a half ago, died Thursday of lung disease. The dog was valued at $1,000, and was said to have been the finest of his breed in all America. All Deming was proud of the noble fellow and regrets his death.

The reporter was yesterday shown a sample of a potato from the farm of S. D. Pendleton, a half mile north of Deming, which for beauty and size couldn't be beat in the hills of Ireland.

The specimen weighed eighteen ounces and measured one foot in circumference. That's the kind of fruit Deming will soon be shipping to the markets of the east.

Charley Kimball, of Stein's Pass, came up to see the railroad and to spend the Fourth.

Pete Gunning, one of the energetic and successful miners of Victorio, was in town this week buying supplies.

P. Roger left Tuesday for a few days rest and recreation at Kingston. Little Jim Tracy is master of the Turf saloon during his absence.

Mike Rose, the artistic ball tosser of Silver City, whose work contributed largely to knocking the base ball conceit out of Deming, is in town and will probably remain here.

John T. Shy, of the Missouri-Florida ranch has returned from a visit to his family at Sedalia, Mo. We regret to learn the serious illness of his little son, Larry, who with his mother was compelled to remain in Missouri, not being able to travel.
